TurnerDonovan Military Books Catalogue No. 194 - Imphal - March 2024

This catalogue contains an excellent selection of stock in most of the customary areas, and I hope that you will find something to interest you within.

We are leading dealers in rare and second hand books on British military history from around 1800 to 1945. The Great War, 1914-1918, has always been our speciality and we hold extensive stocks of regimental and divisional histories, official histories, standard works, memoirs, Rolls of Honour, Army Lists and so forth.

A further selection of stock can be viewed on our fully searchable website

1st Ed., 32pp., 19 photos., one sketch. Bruges: Imprimerie Les Presses Gruuthuuse [for the Zeebrugge Museum]. Contemp. Nicely illustrated record of the unveiling of the memorial by the sculptor Peter de Soet, inc. order of proceedings, details of the action of Submarine C3 at Zeebrugge: the task of the vessel, loaded with six tons of high explosive, was to blow a gap in the Mole to cut it off from land.

The crew was to abandon ship 250 yards before impact, leaving her to carry on on course to her objective, but eventually decided to stay with her until the impact, to ensure success, which followed as a large gap was blown in the mole. The crew consisted of two officers: Lt. Richard Douglas Sandford in command: he received the VC for Zeebrugge & died of illness in November 1918; and Lt. John Howell-Price, 2 i/c & navigator, who received the DSO, and four sailors: PO Walter Harner, EA 3rd Class Alan Gordon Roxburgh, LS William Gladstone Cleaver & Stoker Henry Cullis Bendall. Bendall & Harner were wounded and all four received the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal. Furthermore, all four were evidently present at the memorial unveiling as this work is signed by all of them: Cleaver & Bendall on the title page & Harner & Roxburgh alongside their portraits within. The tp is additionally signed by Col. G. Stinglhamber DSO (a key figure in the establishment of the Zeebrugge Museum & a frequent commentator on the events of 1918), & a crew member of HMS Iris II (LS C.J. Bush DSM) & one of HMS Vindictive. Photographs include the crew of C3, the remains of the sub. showing at low tide, the break in the mole & other interesting pictures. Bound in contemp. blue cloth with gilt title to front "Zeebrugge 1927" retaining orig. dec. wraps. (which are protected with glazed paper contemporary to the binding). A very desirable souvenir of the Zeebrugge Raid signed by all four crew members of C3 present (the commander having died & the other officer, Howell-Price, being an Australian & at this time a merchant navy skipper doubtless unable to attend). 76. BLOCKSIDE (William) [i.e., Charles William Blockside] An ANZAC Muster.

1st Ed., viii+288pp. Privately Printed. nd [1921]. Blockside (1883-1942), who often wrote under the pseudonym William Baylebridge, most of his work being privately published, was a curious Australian poet & short story writer. He is stated to have done "special literary work" during WW1 & "his familiarity with the subjects of the stories in his 'An ANZAC Muster', privately printed in 1921, suggest that he had personal experience at the front, but there appears to be no evidence to show that he belonged to any of the fighting forces." This work is essentially a tribute to the forces of Australia at Gallipoli. Some pieces purport to be true stories related by participants. Certainly readable, as a piece of eloquent fiction, if nothing else, & rare. One copy only on Library Hub (formerly COPAC), at the British Library. National Library of Australia states 100 copies printed. Orig. green cloth, gilt to sp., little staining to lower leading edges of boards o/w VG. Also seen in printed paper wraps. [Ref: 67149] £145

The AIF in its various operations in France: Flerbaix, Flers, Barley Trench, Bullecourt, Polygon Wood, Messines, Hill 104, Villers-Bretonneux, Hamel & more. Author states: "This book is an attempt to tell the story of imperishable deeds from the human & intimate point of view. All names of individuals are fictitious." In his Foreword, Brigadier-Gen. H.E. Elliott adds: "The author actually took part as a non-commissioned officer in most of the actions he so vividly describes... He repeatedly distinguished himself in action... The accounts of Flerbaix, the winter on the Somme, Polygon Wood (where the author won the Military Medal), & the Villers Bretonneux night attack are, in my opinion, by far the truest & best I have read..." Note: The author served with 57th Bn. AIF. Orig. printed paper covd. boards with cloth backstrip with paper sp. label. VG & rare. [Ref: 67125] £225
