TURNER DONOVAN MILITARY BOOKS

Catalogue No. 155 "Néry" – March-April 2018

As always our catalogue contains very largely new stock in all our customary areas, commencing with a major selection of works on the Royal Artillery on the Western Front which includes an exceptional range of unit histories, memoirs, and so forth. Included are many works not previously offered by us, which is some indication of their scarcity. All sections contain a wide range of new stock including many rarities and I hope you will find the catalogue of interest.

3. Christian Creswell Carver. 1st Ed., 376pp., real photo. portrait frontis. Birmingham: Printed for Private Circulation by Cornish Bros. 1920

Christian Carver was born in 1897, Ed. Rugby & Woolwich: he was commissioned in April 1915 & served with D Batt., 84 Bde., 18th Div. Artillery, proceeding to France with the unit at the end of July 1915. On reorganisation in May 1916 his battery was renamed C Batt., 85th Bde., & in Dec. 1916 his entire section was sent to A Batt., 83rd Bde. Lt. Carver was wounded by a shell 23/7/17 near Ypres & Died of Wounds at 10.50 p.m. the same day at 17th CCS, Remy Siding, Lijssenthoek. His grave is in Lijssenthoek Military Cemetery. Contains interesting & touching letters full of domestic detail, notes on life in the trenches (where he was often placed as a FOO) & his work in the Battery. On 1st July 1916 he was Liaison Officer with the 8th East Surreys during their attack on Montauban & was commended for this work. Concludes with extracts from letters of condolence from brother officers. Orig. grey paper covered boards with wheat cloth spine with paper label. VG & rare, inscribed "To May Green from Annie J.H. 4. The Diary of "C" Battery, 62nd Brigade, R.F.A., in the European War, 1914-1918. 1st Ed., orig. printed wraps., [vi]+72pp., plate. Woolwich: Printed at The Royal Artillery Insitution. 1921

Detailed & interesting account of a New Army (K1) RFA Battery, based on its "Digest of Services" - maintained in the Field - augmented by the diaries & recollections of others. Foreword by Brig.-Gen. E.H. Willis, CRA 12th Div., who wrote that "Many acts of self-sacrifice & devotion to duty are strewn up & down the following pages... The achievements of C/62 were great, & this diary has vividly recalled to me many instances during 1916 & '17 when I had the honour to serve in the 12th Divisional Artillery. It has reminded me of the Battery position alongside the Longueval-Flers road in the autumn of 1916 - a position to reach which biscuit tins as stepping stones were necessary as a means of approach to avoid being engulfed in mud. Yet in spite of the very worst conditions imaginable, both as regards weather & hostile fire, the splendid spirit of undaunted cheeriness shown by the officers & men & the evidence of equipment well cared for & handled, impressed me more vividly than

I am able to express. Again at Monchy in 1917 during that long drawn out fight following the battle of Arras, the devotion to duty displayed by the Battery elicited the unaffected admiration & praise both of the infantry & the higher military authorities." VG in orig. printed wraps. & rare, with statement at end: NOTE: This diary is private property & is for the personal use of Officers & Men who served in the battery only. Rare. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57573] £125

5. History of the 359 (4th West Lancs.) Medium Regiment R.A. (T.A.) 1859-1959. 1st Ed., x+214pp., num. photos. inc. many portraits, ep maps. Liverpool: Privately Printed. 1959
WW1 4th West Lancs. Howitzer Bde. RFA, Western Front; WW2 59th (BEF 1940, NW Europe 1944-45) & 68th Medium Regt. (Western Desert inc. Tobruk). Officers rolls &c. Sp. sl. rubbed o/w VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57578] £35

6. Lewisham Gunners: A Centenary History of 291st (4th London) Field Regt. R.A. (T.A.) formerly 2nd Kent R.G.A. (Volunteers). 1st Ed., 74pp., 20 photos. The Regt. 1962
4th London (How.) Bde., Western Front in WW1; 91st & 139th Fd. Regts. RA in WW2, both in France 1940 then 91st in Middle East & 139th in Burma (7th Ind. Div.). Roll of Hon. for WW1 & WW2. Orig. blue cloth, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57580] £25

7. "Two Eleven" Being the History of 211 Siege Battery on the Western Front. Compiled & privately printed for those who served in it. 1st Ed., 86pp., 31 photos. Portsmouth: W.H. Barrell Ltd. 1925
Excellent account of this battery formed in July 1916 & served in France & Flanders until the armistice (inc. Ancre, Arras, 3rd Ypres, 1918 retreat & advance), then on to Cologne. Well illustrated inc. several named group photos. of battery. Roll of Hon. Orig. blue cloth, gilt, unevenly faded o/w VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57560] £120

8. The Wessex (Hants) R.G.A. 1914-1919. 1st Ed., [iii]+39pp. Sutton & Sons, Fareham, Hants. nd (c.1920).
Wessex RGA (TF) Battery, served in France & Flanders from April 1916 onwards inc. battles of Messines, 3rd Ypres & Cambrai 1917 then Amiens & the final advance in Flanders 1918. Quite short but interestingly written & informative account of training & active service together with Roll of Hon., rolls of officers & men who served with the unit abroad, plus an account of the 28th Div. Ammunition Column. Prig. printed wraps., litle stained & chipped, somewhat foxed, else VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57593] £85

9. ANDERSON (Col. A.T., CMG) War Services of the 62nd West Riding Divisional Artillery. 1st Ed., xii+142pp. Cambridge: No imprint (For the Author). 1920
Western Front from Jan. 1917: including the spring advance on the Somme during that year; the attack at Bullecourt; trench warfare during that summer then the Battle of Cambrai; German offensive of spring 1918, with the 5th French Army around Reims & the Final Advance. Rolls of officers (noting those wounded or killed) & awards. Orig. dec. cloth, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57598] £85

10. ARNEWOOD [Pseud. of COOKE (Col. E.D.M.H., DSO, RA)] With the Guns West & East. Illustrated by Lt.-Col. E.A. Hobday, CMG (& two sketches by L. Raven Hill). 1st Ed., 96pp., 26 plates. Privately published in a Limited Edition of 200 Copies. 1923
Cooke went to France with 5th Royal Horse Artillery Brigade in 1914. Subsequently commanded a Battery & gives a very good account of The Battle of Loos, when he acted in support of 15th (Scottish) Div. In 1916 he took a newly raised New Army battery of the 34th Div. to France & fought with them on the Somme until August when selected to form a gunnery school in India. Later served with 60th (London) Div. in Palestine 1917-18 including the capture of Jerusalem. Falls says "This last is particularly interesting as he gives a graphic account of the capture of Jerusalem, into the suburbs of which he must have been about the first man in the British Army to penetrate." Orig. blue paper covd. boards with wheat cloth spine strip, paper label to front board, VG & very rare: no. 42 of 200 numbered copies printed. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57548] £245

11. ASSHER (Ben) [Pseud. of BORADAILE (Major Colin, MC, RGA)] A Nomad Under Arms: The Chronicle of an Artilleryman from 1914 to the Armistice. 1st Ed., 368pp., frontis. & 10 plates, 7 maps (4 fldg.). Witherby. 1931

A regular, the author was posted, in November 1914, to a 4.7-inch how. battery near Kemmel Hill; remained with them until posted to a New Army 60-pdr. battery on the Somme front in Jan. 1916. Wounded by a shell in Feb. 1917 he was then at home until July, returning to the front in time for Passchendaele & commanded a battery through most of 1918. Orig. blue cloth, gilt, head of sp. sl. chipped o/w VG & scarce account with good maps & interesting photos. taken by the author. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57542] £125

12. BECKE (Major A.F., late RFA) Nery, 1914. The Adventure of the German 4th Cavalry Division on the 31st August & the 1st September. Reprinted from 'Journal of the Royal Artillery' Vol. LIV, No. 3. Orig printed wraps., 63pp., 4 photos., 5 large fldg. maps/plans. Woolwich: RA Institution. 1927.

Becke's study of the epic three-VC action at Nery during the Retreat from Mons in 1914, with special reference to the artillery. In the morning mist of 1st Sept. 1914 the German 4th Cavalry Division, in the van of their advance, chanced upon L Battery RHA & the 1st Cavalry Bde. watering their horses & consuming breakfast in the valley below them. The Germans immediately brought their 12 field guns to bear & launched a hail of fire on the British. Some of the horses stampeded, & L Battery, caught broadside on, began to take casualties including the CO, but the 2ic, Capt. Bradbury, managed to get three guns unlimbered & into action. Within a short time two had been knocked-out, but two NCOs & Bradbury continued to fire the remaining gun for two hours, when their ammunition was exhausted: Bradbury was killed & one of the NCOs wounded. This work, in direct view of massed German artillery under 800 yards away, enabled the cavalry to make flank attacks & inflict such damage that the German division fled, leaving many prisoners & dead. What should have been the annihilation of the British Brigade had been turned into the rout of the German Division. In customary Becke fashion the event is so painstakingly researched, checked & revised as to be the definitive account. Becke's research method included cross examination of & extensive correspondence with participants in the events of which he wrote, as well as diligent study of all War Diaries & official reports. Nery is no exception & the depth of human detail as well as military evolutions is at times astonishing. Orig. printed wraps., VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57545] £95

13. BECKE (Major A.F., late RFA) The Royal Regiment of Artillery at Le Cateau, Wednesday, 26th August 1914. 1st Ed., viii+87pp., 5 fldg. maps & 4 fldg. sketches in end-pocket. Woolwich: RA Institution. Jan. 1919

Invaluable, stage-by-stage account of the battle. Becke was attached to the Historical Section (Military Branch) of the Committee of Imperial Defence, so had privileged access to the relevant War Diaries. In addition, he interviewed every available artillery officer who was present, & as a respected military historian & gunner officer his analysis & thoroughness are beyond question. Orig. paper covd. printed boards, red cloth backstrip, sp. sunned, somewhat marked, VG thus. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57566] £45

14. BEHREND (Capt. & Adj. A.F.) Nine Days: Adventures of a Heavy Artillery Brigade of the Third Army during the German Offensive of March 21-29 1918. 1st Ed., xvi+115pp., 13 photos., 3 drawings, 2 fldg. maps. Privately printed. 1921
Appealing & detailed account of the activities of 90th Bde. RGA during this hectic period. Roll of Officers & WOs. Orig. pale blue cloth, gilt, dec. with Bde. sign, VG with bookplate of the Earl of Derby & loosely inserted typed slip: "The Author, late of the Lancashire & Cheshire R.G.A., sends this little book to Colonel the Earl of Derby, K.G., with his respectful compliments. " See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57551] £120
15. BERDINNER (H.F.) With the Heavies in Flanders 1914, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19: A Record of the Active Service of the 24th Heavy Battery RGA. 1st Ed., 143pp., 8 plates. Botolph Printing Works [for the author]. 1922
One of six 60-pdr. batteries in the regular army of 1914: Western Front throughout the war. Awards lists. Interesting battery history with a personal slant: "Written with a shrewd eye for the significant or interesting." - Falls p.98. Orig. red cloth, staining to cloth o/w VG & rare, inscribed by author (who was Wireless Operator to the Battery 1916-19) on frontis. portrait: Yours to the last round. Harold F. Berdinner. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57599] £120
16. BLACKWELL (E.) & AXE (E.) Romford to Beirut via France, Egypt & Jericho: An Outline of the War Record of "B" Battery, 271st Brigade, R.F.A. (1/2nd Essex Battery, R.F.A.), With Many Digressions. 1st Ed., xvi+193pp., 20 photos., 44 drawings, 3 maps. Clacton: Published by R.W. Humphris, on behalf of the Old "B" Battery... 1926
Served in France 1915-16, thence in Egypt & Palestine. Substantial & detailed history, compiled from diaries &c., with nominal roll (noting honours, casualties &c.) written by two former NCOs. "There are all too few battery records, & this is in many respects a model of what they should be. Its interest is heightened by numerous illustrations, which are both humorous & true to life, by Gordon Jackson." - Falls. Orig. brown pictorial cloth, nice clean copy, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57600] £75
17. BLAKER (Richard) Medal Without Bar. 1st Ed., 638pp. VG in sl. chipped dw. H&S. 1930
Fine novel, recently becoming acclaimed although not well known, based on the author's experiences with a 4.5-inch How. battery in F&F, a realistic vision of life & work in the battery, emphasising comradeship & sacrifice. Falls awards a star & notes "one of the longest & most detailed of war novels... gives perhaps the finest picture yet painted of life in a field-artillery battery. He is sentimental in that shame-faced British manner which is really more sentimental than Latin emotionalism, but his portraits are by no means necessarily false for that. His attitude to the war itself is sane & just. This is one of the books which could not possibly have been written save upon the foundation of experience." Lengthy inscrip. on front paste-down o/w VG in sl. chipped dw & uncommon thus. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57602] £125
18. BOMBARDIER "X" So This Was War! The Truth About the Western & Eastern Fronts Revealed. 1st Ed., 224pp., 16 photos. Hutchinson. nd.
Gunner's letters from the Western Front & Salonika: the anonymous author apparently enlisted aged 16 early in the war, & in a Preface Shaw Desmond (pseud. of Charles Nathaniel Lowe Shaw: writer, & Founder of the International Institute for Psychical Research) explains that "He tells not only of howling 'H.E,' or of whining bullet, of suffocating gas, but also of those other horrors, none the less grisly, that lie in wait to trip the flying feet of eager, high-spirited youth. Of pleasant vice that hides disease. Of the dysentery that tears at the bowels of a man... The trench songs, the flash of the cards & the flash of eyes, & of steel, in the estaminets... The monstrous, over-fed rats, lolloping from corpse to corpse..." - Falls would no doubt have had much to say about these themes & about some of the author's stories, such as a quarrel between a Scottish corporal & a coloured soldier that he witnessed in Amiens: "The Scotsman had, apparently, passed some nasty remark which the West Indian resented. High words were followed by a wicked tussle. Steel glistened in the murkey light of spluttering candles, & as the big black man dropped, twisting to the floor, a nasty, curved knife fell from his twitching hand. The Corporal was arrested & led away, blood dripping from his naked bayonet." Orig. cloth, titled in black, nice clean copy, VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57577] £65

19. AS ABOVE: Orig. cloth, titled in black, little sunned & rubbed o/w VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 55742] £50

20. BUCKLAND (C.S.B., sometime Captain & Adjutant) The 25th Army Brigade R.G.A. on the Western Front in 1918. 1st Ed., xi+110pp., 2 verl large fldg. maps (1:100,000 GSGS maps, sheets Hazebrouck & Tournai), 2 fldg. sketch maps. Oxford: Blackwell. 1940 Long-range & 'super-heavy' howitzers (which fired a shell weighing nearly two-thirds of a ton) in the 1918 campaign largely in Flanders, including the withdrawal during April & May, the Kemmel Front throughout the summer then advance over the Lys. There was only one of these super-heavy formations in each Army Corps, hence this history covers an unusual aspect of siege gunnery. It was compiled by the author in 1919 & as a professional historian, he hoped to link "the operations & vicissitudes of a single brigade up with that great machinery of events of which its activities formed a small, if, it is hoped, an effective part." Orig. blue cloth, gilt to sp., VG & rare. [Ref: 57581] £125

21. DELAP (Major J.O.K., DSO) et al. With a Siege Battery in France. 303 Siege Battery, R.G.A. 1916-1919. 1st Ed., orig. dec. limp wraps., iv+90pp., 6 photos. (inc. several aerial photos.). Woolwich: Printed at the Royal Artillery Institution. 1919. Interesting & scarce SB history compiled by the BC & several others at Bonn in 1919. Includes notes on the employment of heavy artillery in France, & the Battery's services at Messines, Ypres & Cambrai in 1917, the German Spring Offensive & the Final Advance at Amiens, Arras, &c. Contains rolls of all ranks with remarks such as wounded, sick &c., with dates, or still with unit on the Rhine. Nice clean copy. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57543] £95

22. FARNDALE (Gen. Sir Martin, KCB) History of the Royal Regiment of Artillery: The Western Front 1914-1918. 1st Ed., x+421pp., 49 photos., 41 maps. VG in dw. RA. 1986 Detailed & acclaimed history covering operations, tactical & technological innovation &c. Lengthy appendices include Order of Battle, organisation of Heavy & Field Artillery in France, ditto of AA Artillery, Trench Mortars &c. Much sought-after. VG in dw. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57572] £60

23. FRASER-TYTLER (Lt.-Col. N., DSO, TD) Field Guns in France. 6th Imp., 255pp., 3 maps. Hutchinson. nd 1922 Valuable personal account of lengthy active service. Author commanded a howitzer battery in 30th Div., 1915-18 inc. Somme, Arras, Messines & Passchendaele. His letters give a useful & accurate account of the life of a field battery, appended to which is his "Gamebook of German Casualties from Personal Observation" - 412 in all. Orig. red cloth, sp. sunned o/w VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57569] £35

24. GEDYE (F.S.) An Outline of the War History of the 240th (1st South Midland: Gloucestershire) Brigade, R.F.A. (T). 1st Ed., orig. brown printed paper wraps., 48pp., 17 photos (on 8 un-numbered plates). No imprint ('reprinted from articles which appeared in the Bristol Evening World'). 1933

A Bristol TF formation landed in France in March 1915 with the 48th (South Midland) Division. Initially in Flanders, then moved to the Somme Front in July 1915 & remained there until Dec. 1916. Later they took part in battles of Arras & Ypres 1917 then with the Div. in Italy during 1918, where they ended the war. Includes some interesting & unusual photos. This copy owned by Lt.-Col. H. Essex Lewis, with several of his annotations/corrections in the text & comments on the photos., plus loosely inserted memorial card for the unit & a postcard to him from a comrade visiting the Somme in 1970. VG, interesting copy & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57597] £95

25. GEE (Sgt. A.E., MM) & SHAW (Cpl. A.E.) A Record of D245 Battery 1914-1919. Illustrations by Bdr. Norman Tennant, DCM, ARCA. 1st Ed., viii+182pp., 9 plates, num. text sketches, lge. fldg. map, several sketch maps of battery positions. VG in sl. chipped dw. Renwick of Otley. nd

11th West Riding Howitzer Battery, from Ilkley. Western Front from April 1915 & for most of the year the battery position was between Boesinghe & Brielen near the Yser canal; Somme 1916 (around Authuille Wood), Passchendaele 1917 &c. Nominal roll, casualties & awards rolls. Orig. blue cloth, VG in the attractive illustrated dw designed by Bombardier Norman Tennant, DCM, ARCA (who served in this battery). Scarce, especially so in the dw. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57555] £165

26. GOODCHILD (George) Behind the Barrage: The Story of a Siege Battery. 1st Ed., 232pp. Jarrolds. 1918

Effective portrayal of life of a howitzer battery from formation & training at Prees Heath & Bordon, then active service in France & Flanders. Goodchild, author of numerous novels, was commissioned in the RGA in 1916, wounded & gassed at Messines & invalided in 1918 when he wrote this book based on his experiences, the Preface dated Sept. 1918. Orig. red pictorial cloth with striking image based on a Nevinson drawing. Sp. sunned o/w VG & rare. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57538] £90

27. GRANT (D.F., MC, late Major, RFA) The History of "A" Battery 84th Army Brigade Royal Field Artillery 1914-1919. Foreword by Sir Ivor Maxse. 1st Ed., 95pp., fldg. table of officers' services. Marshall Bros. 1922

18th Div. on the Somme, Vimy, 3rd Ypres &c. Roll of officers with brief details of service. Orig. olive cloth, gilt, lacks ffep o/w VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 55644] £75

28. GRAY (Albert) Patrick Walworth Gray: The Record of a Boy's Life ended in the Great War, written by His Father. 1st Ed., vii+222pp., 6 portraits. Printed for Private Circulation. 1918

From Rugby Gray secured a scholarship at Trinity College Oxford. but went instead to Woolwich from whence he emerged as a gunner subaltern in November 1916. Opting for the Field Artillery ("you are nearer the front"), he got to France in May 1917 & was posted to 155th Army F.A. Bde. On the night of May 8th 1917 he was badly wounded by a shell & died next evening in the CCS. Contains his letters from Woolwich & the Front, various condolences &c. 30. HAMILTON (Lt.-Col. Hon. R.G.A.) The War Diary of the Master of Belhaven 1914-1918. 1st Ed., viii+472pp., portrait frontis., 29 maps. John Murray. 1924
Classic diaries of Lt.-Col. The Hon. Ralph Gerard Alexander Hamilton, a former regular officer of the 3rd Hussars commanding Essex Horse Artillery on the outbreak of war. Finding that this territorial regiment was not likely to see imminent active service, he managed to become appointed as an interpreter with the 7th Division, accompanying the division to Flanders where it was immediately embroiled in the first battle of Ypres. He was badly bruised when a shell blew him from his horse & invalided at the end of October; gazetted to the 2nd Life Guards in December and returned to France in January 1915, but after several months returned to the Reserve Regiment at Windsor. Whilst at home he took command of "C" Battery 106th Bde. Royal Field Artillery, 24th Div., & landed with the unit in France in September. This new & inexperienced div. was committed too soon to battle (at Loos) and performed poorly: the confusion of the period is eloquently conveyed. From 1915 onwards Belhaven served continuously on the Western Front (apart from periods of leave), latterly as commander of 106th Brigade R.F.A. He was Killed in Action near Amiens on 31st March 1918. Contains a very valuable daily record of artillery work on the Western Front, largely relating to the Ypres Salient (where Hamilton spent lengthy periods in 1916 and 1917). Orig. red cloth, gilt, VG & very scarce original edition. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 53714] £225

32. JEFFERY (Jeffery E.) [Pseud. of MARSTON (Jeffery E.)] Servants of the Guns. 1st Ed., [viii]+264pp. Smith, Elder. 1917
A regular gunner officer wounded in 1914, the author here describes his second stint at the Front, with a New Army battery including the Somme, 1916. Although a Regular, & therefore biased, he admired the New Army men with whom he served during the Battle of the Somme. Orig. cloth, minor wear o/w VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57559] £65
33. KINGHAM (W.R., MA, ex-Gunner, HAC) London Gunners: The Story of the H.A.C. Siege Battery in Action. 1st Ed, xx+279pp., 14 plates, 4 maps (2 fldg.). Methuen. 1919
F&F 1917-18, mostly in the Salient, also Hindenburg Line, 1918. One of the diagrams is of the battery position in Ypres, near to the cathedral. Roll of Hon. Falls, awarding a coveted two stars, states: "This is the record of 309th Siege Battery (6-inch howitzers) which was formed in 1916 from personnel of the HAC... one of the very best of unit narratives - informative, interesting, & at times amusing." Orig. red cloth, very nice copy & scarce thus. 500 copies printed of this edition: a second, cheaper edition was published in smaller format, without the plates, the same year. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57579] £60

Excellent, detailed & among the scarcest Western Front artillery histories. Includes Somme 1916, Arras & Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, German offensive in Flanders 1918 &c. Good maps. Rolls of officers killed & wounded. The author was at school in 1915 & commanding a battery in 1918 at the age of 20, & a contemporary review (not present) opined that he had "literary power remarkable for his years... throws much light on the daily life of the field gunner in France... is to be congratulated on producing so graphic & soul-stirring a narrative..." Orig. blue cloth, gilt, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57595] £125

38. MACDERMOT (T.W.L.) The Seventh. 1st Ed., 144pp., frontis., 16 photos., num. cartoons & sketch maps. VG in sl. chipped dw. Montreal: 7th Canadian Siege Batt. Assoc. 1953

Appealing history of the 7th Canadian Siege Battery by a former signaller of this unit, recruited at McGill Univ. in 1916, that served in France & Flanders 1917-18 inc. Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Arras, 1918 Final Advance, &c. Informative text with unusually detailed sketch maps of battery positions on the Arras-Lens road & elsewhere. Detailed casualty roll & complete nominal roll. "This is a sound workmanlike history which contains all the required information." - Perkins. Very nice copy in sl. chipped dw with author inscrip. "To his old friends... Terence W.L. MacDermot." See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57553] £90

39. MACLEOD (Col. R., DSO, MC) An Artillery Officer in the First World War. Dup. typescript in card covs. with cloth backstrip, label to front, foolscap format, [iii]+244pp., 19 maps & sketches. Unpublished memoirs privately circulated by the author. nd (c.1965).

MacLeod started the war as a subaltern in 80th Batt. RFA, was severely wounded during the Retreat from Mons, but rejoined in time to serve at Neuve Chapelle, Festubert & Aubers

Ridge in 1915; on the Somme in 1916 he was attached to the RFC as a Liaison Officer & records much of interest on artillery observation work, &c. Early in 1917 he was appointed to command "A" Battery, 240 Bde. RFA, then "C" Battery, 241 Bde. at Passchendaele & onwards, including the Asiago Plateau in 1918. Exceptionally observant, substantial, detailed & unpublished memoirs of the war on the Western Front, with copy letter from the Librarian of the Imperial War Museum, Miss Rose Coombs, acknowledging receipt of a copy in 1965: she comments on various aspects of MacLeod's narrative, including his participation in the Battle of Neuve Chapelle & his work with the RFC, adding: "I do not think I have ever read a more detailed & competent account of the life of an artillery officer in the Great War, & know that we shall find the volume a mine of information concerning the little things, the everyday occurrences which never get a mention in an official history, as well as the views of the battles in which you were engaged, which will be most useful to both museum staff & historians carrying out research." Minor wear, VG & highly recommended. See illustrations on our website. [Ref: 57537] £450

Exactly 100 issues of the Piffer were issued from first publication in December 1948 to the Final Number in November 2000, when the organisation dissolved. At first two issues appeared per year, then for the final years, 1995-200 they were annual publication. All are similar format, dec. panted card covs., each issue around 40pp., except during the short period 1967-1977 when a slightly larger format was adopted, the issues during these years being more profusely illustrated & some issues devoted to particular units. Throughout its history the Piffer includecx much interesting regimental news, obits., recollections of various campaigns, correspondence &c., providing much of interest to students of the Indian Army & particularly the history & campaigns of the elite Frontier regiments. Scarce run although incomplete, includes Vol. I, No. 1, then none til 1954, thence almost complete, with occasional short gaps, until 1996. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57478] £325

 From raising in 1785 as 3rd Regt. of Native Cav. onwards. "A competent history compiled from records in the officers of the Madras Government & of the Adjutant General, supplemented by similar information taken from the records of the Regt. itself. The narrative contains much detail concerning the internal organisation of the Regt. The author provides some sketchy coverage of its role in the 3rd & 4th Mysore Wars, & the 2nd & 3rd Mahratta Wars, but then examines the period of the Mutiny in much greater depth. The 4th... was disbanded in 1891, & this is the only known published record of its services." - Perkins. Appendices include analysis of casualties for battles of Bangalore (1791), Assaye (1803) & Maheidpore (1817), but note one leaf (pp.93/94) of the Appendix containing notes on the class composition of the regiment is lacking, neat recent card wraps. with panels of orig. chipped front & rear panels laid down, VG thus, with tipped-in Errata slip & ink inscrip. Entertaining, detailed & rare account of the Irish Company (numbering just 96 men of all ranks at full strength: a number reduced by battle casualties & sickness during the campaign) with the French Regiment Etranger during the Franco-Prussian War 1870-71. "the author confines himself to the trials through which the contingent of Irishmen under his command actually passed. There is more in warfare than battles, & there is more in battles than mere fighting. There is, in fact, a fund of almost untouched literary lore in the daily life of a soldier on active service, & it upon this comparatively unbroken ground that this book is submitted to the reader's courteous consideration." - author's Preface. Includes a roll of the Irish Company, noting those at duty, those wounded (& where, sick, died, &c.). Orig. green cloth, gilt, neatly rebacked retaining all orig. cloth, gilt to front & sp., VG thus & rare. Note: pagination of the main text concludes with p.258 & immediately picks up with [263], the title leaf of the Appendix, but as no matter is absent this is presumably a quirk of the Dublin printer. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57583] £220

Valuable & evocative collection of eye-witness accounts of servicemen/women on all fronts from both previously published sources & specially contributed articles with hundreds of interesting illustrations. Originally published as a partwork but more frequently (& conveniently) found in this durable binding. Contemp. maroon publisher's cloth, gilt, VG & highly recommended. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56634] £70

191. HANLEY (James) The German Prisoner. With an Introduction by Richard Aldington. 1st Ed., 36pp., frontis. by William Roberts. Privately Published by the Author, 9 Wilton Road, Muswell Hill, N.10. [1931].

A grotesque, uncomfortable short story, in which two unlikeable soldiers, thrown together in camaraderie by the war, find themselves lost in a shellhole in no-man's-land when an equally lost German soldier blunders in & surrenders to them. Their needless, sadistic, sexually-laden torture of the man, until he dies at their hands, is unimaginable; with some sort of justice the two British soldiers are shortly afterwards killed instantaneously by a German shell. James Hanley, a writer more popular with the critics than the public, was a Liverpool-born Irishman of humble origins. As a young man he was in the Merchant Navy until deserting & joining the Canadian Army, with which he served in France. He was no stranger to outrage as another work, published the year before this one, was banned under obscenity laws (titled Boy, it concerned a boy in the merchant service & his abuse at the hands of seamen & officers on his ship). Richard Aldington, who had become vehemently anti-war by this time, sponsored this private publication (if commercially published it might well have shared the fate of Boy) & justifies what would seem to be the gratuitous brutality of its writing & of its characters in his Introduction: having dismissed 'professional novelists' ("I am sick of them, you are sick of them, we are sick of them; probably they are sick of themselves-they ought to be.) I want something new, something with vigour & life, however coarse & violent." He continued: "The German Prisoner is a terrible story, terrible as the reality it expresses with so interesting a mixture of realism & symbolism... How much his story brings back-the long dragging march up the line, the assembly in the jumping-off trenches, the awful plunge of the attack, the world-splitting flashes of the artillery, the crash of shells, the smoke, the horror & annihilation. 'But,' it will be said, 'there are so many dreadfully dirty words in the talk of these two men. Even though they are tortured to madness, we cannot sympathise with men who talk like that.' Well, you ought to. You were not afraid to send men to hell, you did everything you did to get them there, & congratulated yourselves on your patriotic fervour. Gentlemen! here are your defenders; ladies! here are the results of your charming white feathers. If you were not ashamed to send men into the war, why should you blush to read what they said in it..." The very striking, specially commissioned frontispiece by William Roberts, in the cubist style, depicts the two Tommies with the barely conscious German, & is a fine introduction, in & of itself, to what lies ahead. Edition limited to 500 copies "for sale to Private Subscribers" of which this is numbered 244 & signed by the author alongside the limitation. Orig. maroon cloth, gilt titles to front & sp., VG. See illustrations on our website. [Ref: 57512] £225

192. HARBOTTLE (George A.) Civilian Soldier 1914-1919: A Period Relived. 1st Ed., orig. laminated cards wraps., 132pp., 14 photos., 7 maps. Newcastle: Carlis Print Ltd., for the Author. nd (c.1982).

Privately printed memoirs limited to 100 numbered copies of which this is No. 113 (!), numbered & signed by the author. A coal miner, served in 1/6th Northumberland Fusiliers in France 1915-17 when, as A/RQMS he left to be commissioned in the MGC, awarded MC & Croix de Guerre at Soissons in 1918 with 15th (Scottish) Div. Interesting memoirs accompanied by several photocopied obits., author's comp. slip, letter, memorial programme of Harbottle's Thansgiving Service at Gosforth Parish Church in 1998. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57524] £45

194. HARRIS (Tindall) Motoring Memories in Peace & War. 1st Ed., viii+91pp., 2 photos. & 3 drawings. St. Catherine Press. 1928

Memoirs of an early motorist, mostly concerning the Great War when the author served in France & carried over 5000 wounded: "In October, 1914, I joined a Red Cross convoy for France as a voluntary driver. I was 52, lucky in that respect to be safe from the trenches." Valuable & rare account of the work & conditions of a volunteer Red Cross driver in France & Flanders, who finally returned home early in 1918 after more than two years work at the Front. Orig. red cloth, gilt, near fine, published by St. Catherine's Press (imprint of W.H. Smith & Son's Arden Press) but almost certainly a private venture by the author. Rare. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 49758] £165

An excellent selection, arranged by theme within a chronological plan, including the works of some 100 poets, plus scholarly introductions, notes &c. very nice copy of original hardback edition, VG in dw. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56633] £25

197. HILL (Herbert) Retreat from Death. 1st Ed., 480pp. Hutchinson. 1936

Gripping, passionate WW1 novel based on author's personal experiences as a very young soldier during and after the March Retreat. George Herbert Hill was born in Ireland in 1898. Following the year he spent in France during the Great War (apparently with an Irish regiment) he became a reporter at the Belfast Telegraph. After the publication of Retreat from Death he worked with the scriptwriter Alexander Korda & film producer Brian

Desmond Hurst. In 1939 he returned to the Belfast Telegraph as a war correspondent and after WW2 joined the Daily Mail until his retirement. Orig. black cloth, titled in yellow, somewhat cocked, but rare. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57446] £65

198. HINDENBURG (Marshal von) Out of My Life. 1st Eng. Ed., xiii+458pp., portrait frontis., 3 fldg. maps in end-pocket. Cassell. 1920

199. JAMES (F.) Faraway Campaign. 1st Ed., 282pp., map. Grayson & Grayson. 1934

Personal account with 28th Madras Light Cavalry on the East Persia Cordon, the unknown 'front' of thousands of square miles of bare desert along the Afghan border with Persia, 1916 to the end of 1919. This was a thinly held front: just the author's regiment & one battalion of Indian infantry up against wily German agents & vicious tribesmen whose only concern was plunder, as well as the harsh terrain. Orig. blue cloth, gilt, sp. sunned, rather rubbed & worn, sound & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56819] £50

200. JOHNSTON (Lt. Alec) At the Front. Intro. by Owen Seaman & Appreciation by Capt. T.L. Ingram, RAMC, DSO, MC. 1st Ed., 130pp., portrait frontis. Constable. 1917

First-hand accounts of service experiences contributed to Punch by Alec Leith Johnston whilst serving in France and Flanders with 1st Bn. King's Shropshire Light Infantry. Johnston was Ed. at St. Paul's School & Exeter College, Oxford, enlisted in the Artists's Rifles in 1914 & commissioned 1915. He was Killed in Action near Ypres on 22nd April 1916. Includes an Appreciation by the MO of his bn. which includes a description of his final action &c. Orig. blue cloth, VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57529] £65

202. KINGSFORD (A.R.) Night Raiders of the Air: Being the Experiences of a Night Flying Pilot, who raided Hunland on many dark nights during the War. 1st Ed., 208pp., 10 plates by Leonard Bridgman & James Coen. John Hamilton. nd (c.1931).

Service with NZ infantry in Egypt & Salonika - & being torpedoed in a troopship - convinced the author to transfer to the RFC, trained at Flying School, became a pilot in Home Defence Sqdrn. then returned to the Western Front with 100 Squadron. Orig. blue cloth, titled in black, sp. sl. tanned, generally VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56630] £25

203. LIDDELL HART ([Capt. Basil]) The War in Outline 1914-1918. 1st Ed., 259pp., 7 maps (4 fldg.). VG in dw. Faber & Faber. 1936

The publisher claims that this is "not a mere miracle of condensation. It is the best possible introduction to more extended reading; while, taken in itself, it provides readers, who have no time for closer study, with a clear grasp of the general course of events & of the principles (& the errors) of the opposing strategies." - see sleeve notes. Nice copy in dw. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57396] £35

204. MACGILL (Patrick) The Diggers: The Australians in France. 1st Ed., 120pp. Jenkins. 1919

Atmospheric tales of the main Aussie battles, Pozieres, Villers Bretonneux, &c. Publication sponsored by Wellington House & generally considered to be MacGill's scarcest war book. Orig. red cloth, VG, nice clean copy. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57475] £30

205. MCLEOD (Jenny) Reconsidering Gallipoli. 1st Ed., paperback edition, viii+262pp., 6 illus., 2 maps. Manchester Univ. Press. 2004

Valuable historiography ranging from discussion of contemp. works (The Report of the Dardanelles Commoission, the agendas of the several official historians, &c.), ranging through memoirs & more recent histories to other genres such as the eponymous 1981 film. Paperback edition. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56504] £15

206. MATTHEWS (E.C., Lt., DCLI) A Subaltern in the Field. 1st Ed., 63pp., 12 photos. Heath Cranton. nd (c.1920).

Rare personal account of service with 1/5th DCLI from June 1916 until wounded in attack at Foret de Nieppe in May 1918. Also served Ancre, Somme, Ypres &c. The author's name at foot of Preface is given as Ernest Channing Matthews (as he appears in the Army Lists of the period), he was later known as Ernest Matthews Channing-Renton & was an interesting character: sometime a British vice-consul & an artist in oils, water-colour, Indian ink & charcoal, as recorded in contemp. works of reference. Orig. printed paper covd. boards, minor wear, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57394] £125

207. MILLAIS (J.G.) Life of Frederick Courtenay Selous, D.S.O., Capt. 25th Royal Fusiliers. 4th Imp., xi+387pp., portrait frontis., 15 plates. Longmans. 1919

Selous was born in 1851 & Ed. at Rugby. In 1870 he left England for South Africa with the intention of earning his living as a professional elephant hunter. Served with irregular forces in Matabele Wars 1893 (wounded) and 1895. In 1915 he was given a commission in the 25th (S) Bn., Royal Fusiliers, the Frontiersmen Battalion. This unusual unit was raised in London in Feb. 1915 for service in East Africa. Many of the volunteers were older men, worldly and experienced adventurers. In March 1915 they embarked for East Africa - uniquely without preliminary training - & saw much action over the following two-and-a-half years. After a year of service Selous was absent for some time as he had to return to England for an operation, but returned & was KiA leading an advance on Behobeho on 4/1/1917. He was twice Mentioned in Despatches and awarded the DSO. A detailed account of his adventurous life by a friend (who shared in some of these adventures) with access to Selous' voluminous correspondence to family members and friends (incl. Theodore Roosevelt). Includes letters written during the campaign in German East Africa. Orig. blue cloth, gilt, little rubbed, VG. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57468] £45

VG in sl. chipped dw. Stuttgart: Belfer. 1927

German language. Substantial & lavish record of the Wurttemberger regiments in the war, printed on art paper, mainly on the Western Front. Detailed text & a very fine selection of colour plates, b/w photos., sketches & diagrams, schematics of orders of battle, &c. Superb copy in sl. chipped dw & retained in orig. card box of issue. See illustrations on our website. [Ref: 57456] £75

210. PICOT (Lt.-Col. H.P., CBE) The British Interned in Switzerland. 1st Ed., xi+212pp. Edward Arnold. 1919

An account by the late Military Attache of the Legation at Berne & B.O. in charge of the interned in Switzerland. Falls (67) states: 'The history of the British interned in Switzerland has an unpleasant side, mainly due to misunderstandings between races of strikingly different temperaments... Picot does not neglect this side, but he emphasises the kindness & hospitality of the Swiss.' Orig. blue cloth, publisher's file copy, near fine with label to front & stamp on tp. Rare. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57439] £65

211. PRIVATE No. 940 [Pseud. of STURGES (Robert Simon Mansfield)] "On the Remainder of Our Front." 1st Ed., 156pp. Harrison & Sons. 1917

Personal account of service in the 19th (PS) Bn. Royal Fusiliers, proceeding overseas in Nov. 1915, experiences on the Festubert & Cambrin fronts until posted home for a commission in Feb. 1916 (Sturges was commissioned in the MGC & later served at the War Office). An informative, unvarnished but atmospheric account of the battalion's experience of active service (at the time Sturges left it was pulled from the line & used as a potential officer pool before disbanding shortly after). Harrison & Son., favoured printer of the War Office, were not known for general book publishing & it is possible that this work was printed for the author. It is certainly rare. Orig. maroon cloth, rubbed, stained & worn, eps renewed, but scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57393] £50

212. PRYSE (Gerald Spencer) Four Days: An Account of a Journey in France made between August 28th and 31st, 1914. 1st Ed., vii+305pp., map. VG in sl. chipped dw. Bodley Head. 1932

"Mr. Spncer Pryse, travelling on an official mission from England, here describes the adventurous journey he undertook by motor-car from Boulogne, through Amiens, Compiègne to south of Laon... His extraordinary experiences... included a meeting with two British soldiers new St. Pol who had lost their regiment after Mons, a night spent in a village infested by Uhlans cavalry where murder & reprisal were rife..." &c. Uncommon, especially in dw (sl. chipped/stained). See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56775] £35

213. REMARQUE (Erich Maria) All Quiet on the Western Front. 41st USA printing, [v]+291pp. VG in dw. Boston: Little, Brown. nd (c.1960).

Later impression of USA edition with yet another variant dustjacket. Falls praised it somewhat grudgingly & attributed its success to the publisher's publicity machine: "It is a good novel of the more brutal naturalistic school, & at times reaches considerable heights. If it is unnecessarily coarse, we must recall that the latrine always had a fascination for the German soldier..." VG in sl. chipped dw. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 48751] £20

214. R.N.V. [ie. DAWSON (Eric P., RNVR)] Pushing Water. 1st Ed., [v]+143pp. John Lane/Bodley Head (On Active Service series). 1919

Mostly concerns the middle part of the war when author was Chief of the Imperial General Staff, including discussion of the Easterners v. Westerners debate & “of his efforts to teach statesmen that armies require food, which in turn requires ships & rail or road transport. Some will think, however, that Sir William reveals a certain inelasticity of thought & of temper which to a small extent justified the impatience of the statesmen while being instructed.” - Falls (awarding a coveted star). Orig. black cloth, gilt, near fine in dws & scarce thus. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56625] £70

222. WEST (A.G.) The Diary of a Dead Officer: Being the Posthumous Papers of Arthur Graeme West. Intro. by C.E.M. Joad. 1st Ed., xiv+96pp. Allen & Unwin. [1918].

In his lengthy, largely biographical, Intro., Joad explains that at Blundell's School at Tiverton (where West was ed. after a brief spell at Highgate) the latter was known as a "Worm" - the "universal designation [at Blundell's] for anyone who regarded books as something other than work." He was unathletic & his public school days unhappy, but he was much happier at Balliol. Initially he was turned down for a commission & enlisted in the Public Schools Bn., Royal Fusiliers, spent four months in the ranks in France, Nov. 1915-March 1916, then came back for officer training. Commissioned in 6th Bn. Ox. & Bucks, he returned to France in Sept. 1916, attained the rank of Captain & was shot by a sniper on 3rd April 1917. The book contains extracts from his "frank" diary throughout his service, describing his experiences & surroundings as well as his embracing pacifism, while remaining at the same time a dutiful and conscientious soldier. The final part consists of poems, some with war themes. Decorated paper covd. boards, gilt to spine and front, VG & scarce. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 57467] £125

223. YEATS-BROWN (Francis) Caught by the Turks. 1st Ed., vii+220pp., 4 plates. Arnold. 1919

Y.-B., a captain in the 17th Cavalry, was observing for Capt. White of the Australian Flying Corps when they were forced down during a reconnaissance mission to Baghdad in Nov. 1915, PoW & eventual escape. Writing of this book in a later work ("Golden Horn," 1932) he stated: "...fewer than a thousand copies were sold. Few people therefore read it, & fewer still will remember it." Contemp. qtr. crushed morocco, gilt, maroon cloth sides, by Birdsall & Son of Northampton: a pleasing & very good quality Bumpus-style binding. See illustration on our website. [Ref: 56785] £90

MANUSCRIPT MATERIAL & EPHEMERA 1914-1918

226. Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (PPCLI): Photograph Album, France & Flanders 1914-1915. Contemp. wheat clothbound photo. album, 20x16cm approx., containing 96 small (6x4cm) photos. of the Kodak 'box brownie' type, + two larger photos. loosely inserted.

A superb selection of previously unknown images of the PPCLI at the Front in the Ypres Salient, 1914-15, preserved in this album by the regiment's Machine Gun Sergeant, Edward Charles Workman, formerly a sergeant in the Cheshire Regiment & veteran of the Boer War, who evidently emigrated to Canada following his regular military service; he volunteered for the CEF in Sept. 1914, accompanied the PPCLI to the Front & according to regimental history was wounded 27/4/1915 (evidently slight), 4/5/1915 & for a third time, having been commissioned in the regiment, as a Lieutenant during the Final Advance on 28/9/1918. An outstanding range of photos. privately taken with a personally owned camera during the first six months of the PPCLIs service at the Front: Sgt. Workman usefully captioned the snaps in pencil, but as he appears in a number of them he may not have been the owner of the camera, although possibly it was his camera & a comrade took some of the photos. In any case, his album provides a rare glimpse of his & his regiment's experience in Flanders, from front lines trenches to billets, & some of the local Flemish peasantry with whom they were billeted. What we might term domestic subjects, such as the regimental butcher & barber at work, a soldier mending his boots, etc., are as important as the front line scenes, troops parading for the trenches, & so forth. Of particular significance for the PPCLI are two views of the remnants of the regiment in bivouacs in an open field following the devastating battle on Bellewarde Ridge in May 1915: poignantly, in the foreground of one of these a kneeling man is lathered & shaving, as though to return some normality after a shocking experience. A number of soldiers are identified, some noted as later killed. One snap shows a man of the regiment, in a front line trench, rifle with bayonet fixed laying up against the parapet. Workman's pencilled caption states "This man was killed an hour after this picture was taken by one of our own shells." Various other views include shell-damaged buildings in Ypres, Dickebusche, &c., regimental transport & men of the Transport Section ("A tough bunch"), the post arriving & being collected; dinner time in billets; rations being issued; Teddy Bears (Workman & another soldier wearing sheepskin coats, tied-around with ribbons); Rest Camp; travelling kitchens & more. PPCLI cap badges & cloth shoulder titles clearly legible in some of the photos. Album a little worn but sound, photographic quality somewhat variable, as one would expect from such a collection, but overall remarkably good & clear compositions that would respond well to scanning/enlarging. Plus loosely inserted postcard sized photo. of MG Sgt. Workman, an officer & MG Section, with regimental mascot (wearing a medical kit) & a larger, formal studio portrait of Sgt. Workman in the uniform of the Cheshire Regiment wearing his Boer War (QSA & KSA) medals. See illustrations on our website. [Ref: 57492] £1,500
